EYFS

Jays - Rhys

Rhys, we have been so impressed with your attitude to your learning this week. You are trying hard to join in with everything and you are also putting your hand up in class more! You have persevered with your work and your homework has been truly amazing.

Keep up this hard work and positive attitude.

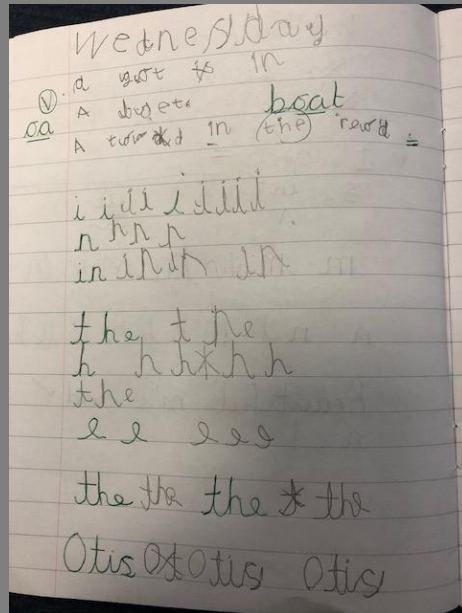

Robins – Hudson A

Hudson has blown us away with his hard work and can-do attitude this week. He is always making the right choice and tries his absolute best during choosing time to challenge his learning. Well-done Hudson, keep up the fantastic work you are a super star!

Year 1

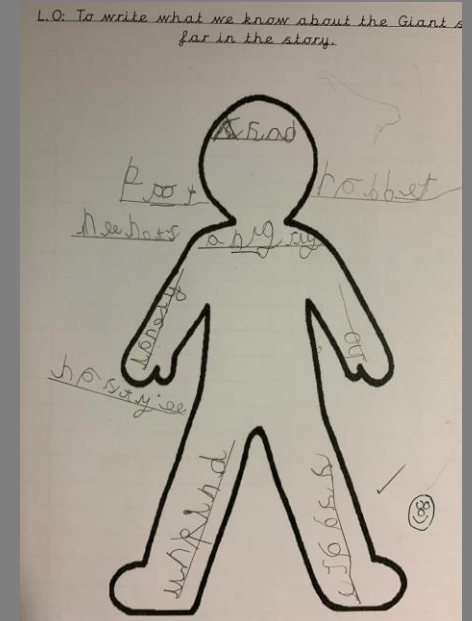

Otis - Owls

Otis has a super attitude towards school and is trying hard in everything we do. This week he has surprised himself with the improvement in his handwriting!

Annie - Sparrows

Wow, Annie what a huge improvement in the quality of your work! Just like in Owls class, we have been really working on our handwriting and Annie has shown great determination to improve her neatness and being able to write independently. Keep up the great work.

Year 2

Finches – Billy

This week Billy has been a real Feniscowles Child. He has participated in all lessons, often putting up his hand to offer answers. Billy has had an amazing attitude to his work. We are really proud of your Billy. Keep this up!

Wrens – Piper

Piper has such a wonderful attitude to learning and to school life. She has been so eager to share ideas in English, explain her understanding in Maths and she showed great knowledge and map skills in Geography whilst on our local area walk. You are a super star, Piper! Keep it up and you will do amazing things.

Year 3

Poppie Jackdaws

Poppie puts in a huge amount of effort into all of her work. But this week, her RE contributions to the lesson and her recording of her ideas have been fabulous! She could clearly explain how and why Christians use music to worship. She deserves to be in our special assembly this week. Fantastic work, Poppie.

Brooklyn – Cranes

Brooklyn shows real endeavour in all his work. This week, he listened carefully and could use all the rules of speech when writing a conversation between the children in our book 'Stone Age Boy'. He also used interesting synonyms for the word 'said'. Well done, Brooklyn!

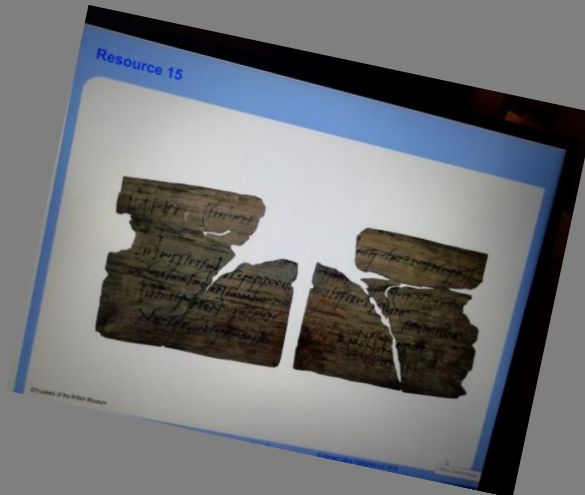

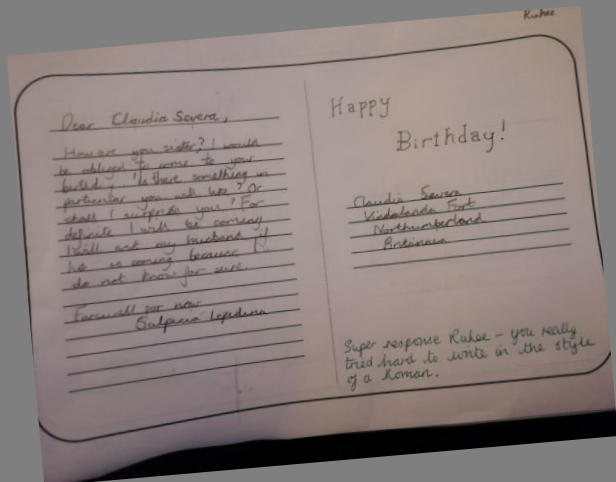

announced	grumbled	chuckled
chanted	exclaimed	giggled
moaned	cried	wailed
yelled	chattered	bellowed

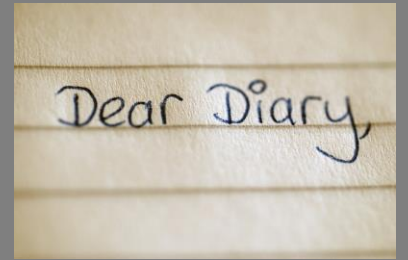

Year 4

Ruhee – Buzzards

During History this week we looked evidence of a Roman letter written in Latin on a wooden tablet, excavated around AD 100. We were amazed to discover it was a party invitation. Ruhee wrote a super response to the invitation trying very hard to write in the same language style. Well Done Ruhee, you always demonstrate patience and care with your written work.

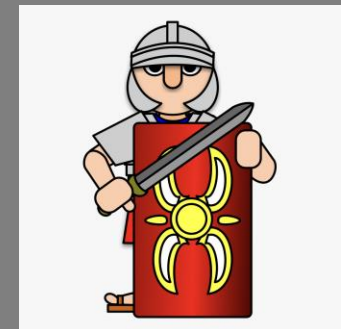

Isaac- Hawks

Isaac has worked super hard this week. In English we have been writing a diary in the role of a Roman Solider. Isaac is so detailed in his writing and has really impressed me with both his choice of language and knowledge of Roman life.

You always try your best and take on board any feedback to improve your work. Keep up the high standards, I am so proud of you!

Year 5

Milo - Ospreys

I have been really impressed with the adventure story you have written this week Milo. After describing the setting and character in your opening, you have built the tension effectively, included a problem and a gruesome resolution! I look forward to reading your ending that you will be writing.

Super work Milo – keep your standards high.

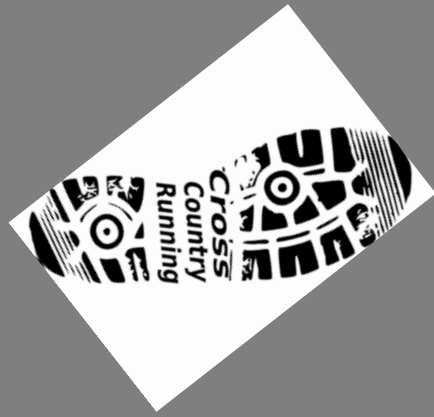

Evie-Leigh

I have been blown away with Evie-Leigh's enthusiasm and her attention to detail during the writing of our adventure story. After an opening paragraph which set the scene and described the character, I was kept on the edge of my seat during the build-up. Then your character Ruby Roundhouse faced dangers and now I'm excited to see what happens next!

You always listen attentively, take on board suggestions and use them in your work. Keep it up Evie-Leigh!

Year 6

Ted - Falcons

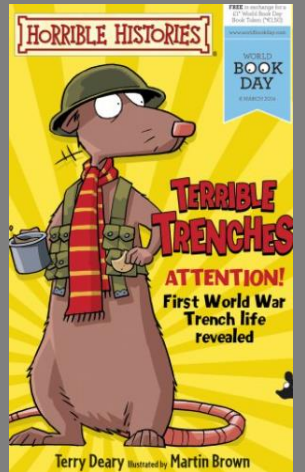

As soon as last week's assembly finished, Year 6 were changed and ready for a wet and windy cross-country run – PERFECT!

Ted demonstrated great control of his pace, establishing, and then more impressively, maintaining a healthy lead. He showed great maturity in not racing off. Impressive skills, Ted. We can't wait to see you in action again soon!

Harley- Eagles

This week in English, we have been explaining what the conditions in World War 1 trenches were like. Harley produced some amazing work and used alliteration effectively in his writing.

EYFS

Jays – Meredith

Meredith is a delightful member of our class. She has shown the school value of respect, listening to her peers and adults and waiting her turn. Meredith is a fantastic role model for how she always follows the 3S's and is always ready to learn. She is also extremely helpful and tidy up time and she shows respect for our classroom environment.

Robins - Ella-Rai

Ella is a cheerful and caring young girl, and she is a joy to have in the Robin Class. She shows the school values of Compassion and Respect every day by being kind to her friends, looking after our classroom and being a fantastic listener.

Year 1

Maisey - Owls

Maisey is such a fantastic example of a 'Feniscowles Child'. She displays all of our school values and is an excellent role model to others. It is a pleasure to have her in Owls Class!

Harry B - Sparrows

Harry has shown great kindness and care for others with the Harvest gifts that he has brought into school all week. Harry has really understood the meaning of Harvest and giving to others who are in need.

Year 2

Finches – Mya

This week Mya has shown the school value of endeavour. She has had an amazing attitude towards all aspects of work. Whilst on our Geography walk Mya was a fantastic leader, using her map skills to help her group find the way and looking out for the different house types. Mya used her very sensible and mature attitude. Well done Mya!

Wrens - Brooke

We have spoken a lot this week about our school value of 'integrity' - doing the right thing even when nobody is watching. Brooke is really trying to demonstrate this. She quietly listens, follows our school rules and the 3 Ss. She gets on with tasks independently and shows respect to others. It is wonderful to know we can just rely on her to do the right thing. Well done Brooke!

Year 3

Jude Jackdaws

Jude is a total superstar! His endeavour shines through in all of his work and he's also one of the most compassionate boys that I know. He always puts others before himself and is a good friend to many because he's such a lovely, thoughtful person to be with. Don't go changing, Jude. Keep on shining!

Robyn – Cranes

This week, Robyn has shown compassion and integrity. She has helped other children on more than one occasion, without being asked and without looking for praise. This has not gone unnoticed, Robyn. Well done!

Year 4

Khaleesi – Buzzards

Khaleesi you always show such compassion to members of our class. You care about their feelings, and you are thoughtful and considerate with your friends. It is such a pleasure to have you in Buzzards you are a wonderful role model for Feniscowles.

Holly- Hawks

Holly you have been such a superstar this week! You are always keen to help out in class and have shown true endeavour in all of your work. Well done for persevering with all the new challenges this week and showing your commitment to being the best you can be! The respect and kindness that you show to all members of the Hawks class doesn't go unnoticed. You are a wonderful example of a Fenisowles child.

I am really proud!

Year 5

Macie-Woodpeckers

You have such integrity Macie and always show respect. I can always trust you to be doing the right thing. You are such a valued member of Woodpeckers class, always following our rules of be ready, be safe, be respectful and you are such a positive role model to others. You are a quiet girl, but your efforts do not go unnoticed by adults in class. You were a superstar on Monday when you won Mr Simpson's pineapple of bravery, pushing yourself outside your comfort zone. You're a star!

Lucas A - Ospreys

You are always keen to help out in class and around school as a compassionate Osprey. It has been great to see the work you have produced this week, even when I have been off school, as you're endeavouring to be the best you can be.

Despite finding speaking in public challenging, you have pushed yourself to speak in the Harvest Assembly.

Keep it up Lucas – I have been really impressed this week.

Year 6

Ava-Falcons

Ava always demonstrates the qualities of the Feniscowles' Child. She is always well-organised, ready to listen and therefore ready to work. She produces work of an increasingly high standard in all subjects, setting a fabulous example for others.

Well done, Ava! Keep up your wonderful work!

Raania - Eagles

This week, Raania has shown that she is 'Striving for Excellence' in all that she she does. She has worked hard, been ready to listen and has produced excellent pieces of work in all areas. Raania has been a polite member of the class showing compassion and respect to all.
