Robins - Alana

Alana has been awarded the achievement award for her hard work practising blending and segmenting words to read and write. She is getting better at using her phoneme fingers to help her identify individual sounds and has made great improvement. Well done Alana, keep up the super work!

Jays - Zachary

Zach has shown perseverance in many ways this week. He has been practising cutting with scissors and persevered to complete the activity.

He has also shown a keen interest in our winter topic, using his senses to explore snow, ice & frost alongside his friends!

Well done Zach, you are a superstar!

Year 1

Owls - Henry

Henry has tried really hard with all of our special work this week.

He has truly impressed us with his maths skills, especially solving problems and reasoning!

Sparrows - Freddie

This week we have been working on some tricky Maths questions.

Freddie has amazed us with his quick, accurate recall of number facts. He loves a challenge in this area of his learning and has shown just what a super attitude he has!

Keep this going Freddie, we are very proud of you!

Year 2

Finches – Hunter

In History this term we have been learning about explorers. Hunter has had amazing knowledge and has been enthusiastic about his learning. Often finding out more and sharing this with the class.

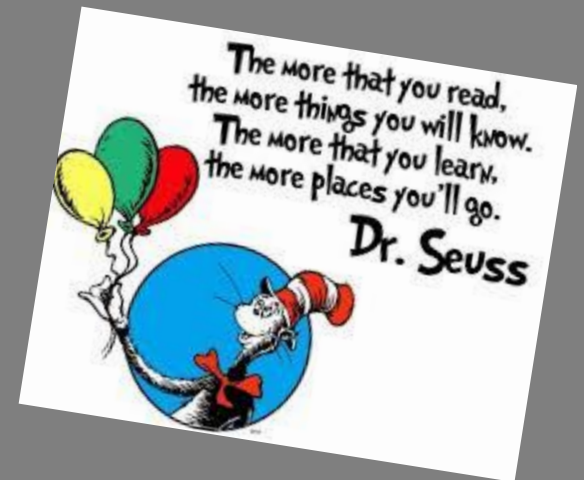

Hunter loves finding out about the past and important people that have helped shaped our world.

Wrens – Paisley

This week, we have read some interesting texts about dinosaurs and gorillas as part of our reading quizzes. Paisley showed lots of concentration, taking her time to read each section thoroughly and answer the questions with thought and care.

Keep up your wonderful reading, Paisley!

Year 3

Thalia-Jackdaws

Thalia comes to school to learn! She is always keen to do her best and has completed some fantastic writing about sea turtles recently. We are also very impressed with her science knowledge and understanding about muscles this week. You always try your best and should be very proud of your achievements. Well done, Thalia

Lydia – Cranes

Lydia has made amazing progress in our swimming lessons this term. She has moved from swimming with two arm bands to swimming confidently with no arm bands in the deep end. This is through hard work and a determined attitude to succeed. What an achievement! Well done, Lydia!

Levi – Buzzards

Levi, you have been working hard to improve your handwriting and presentation of work. Your effort has been noticed and it's made a great difference to the quality of the work you have produced. Endeavour to keep up this super work.

Lucas- Hawks

Lucas has always got a positive attitude towards learning! This week I was really impressed with his science work on sound. He drew a detailed diagram and explained how sound travels through different states of matter. His enthusiasm during our practical activity really helped him with his writing.

I am also super impressed with how much your handwriting has improved over the last couple of weeks! Keep up the amazing work.

Year 5

Erin – Woodpeckers

Erin has been chosen for this award because she completed a homework task with such enthusiasm that she produced an exceptional piece of work. Well done Erin!!

River – Ospreys

River showed a keen interest in our work in Geography this week and identified different physical and human geographical features in Heimaey. You also managed to managed to look at the differences between the Icelandic island we have been studying and Feniscowles.

Your use of vocabulary was very good and I know Mrs Clarkson was impressed.

Great job River.

Sam – Falcons

Sam has shown great diligence and perseverance with his reading throughout the whole term! His hard work has really begun to pay off in all areas, improving his understanding of texts in different subjects. A great attitude and a super example of what hard work can achieve.
Well done, Sam!

Robins: Callum

Callum has been awarded the Golden Book Award this week for demonstrating our school value of Endeavour.

He has worked so hard during challenge time this week, trying his best in everything he does. If Callum does find something a bit tricky he doesn't give up and is not afraid to ask for help from others.

Well done Callum, you should be so proud of yourself!

Jays : Elsie-May

Elsie-May has been given the award this week for showing compassion towards her friends and teachers in her class.

This week especially, we have noticed her kindness towards her friends. From comforting them when they have been a little sad, to congratulating them on their achievements and good work. Not to mention, she has been a huge help to her teachers too.

Well done Elsie-May, we are very proud of you.

Year 1

Owls - Lia

Lia is a great example of a Fensicowles child!

She has endeavoured to do her best with all of our special work this week, with some really pleasing results.

She behaves in a mature and sensible manner, setting a really good example to others.

Sparrows - Oliver

Wow – what a keen learner you are Oliver!

You show our school value of endeavour in all that you do particularly when trying to answer questions and join in with discussions even if you are unsure.

Your 'have a go' attitude will get you far in life Oliver. This has shown in the special work we have done this week.

Year 2

Finches – Darcey

This week has been a tricky week with all the quizzes taking place. Darcey has shown the school value of endeavour throughout the week. She has had her sensible working head on and tried her very best every day.

Well done Darcey, we are very proud of you.

Wrens Class

I spent quite a while trying to choose just one person for this week's gold book... and I just couldn't! Things have been a bit strange in our class this week. We've had to have lunch in our classroom, different playtimes and quite a few children coming and going! But the Wrens have shown integrity, compassion and have just taken everything in their stride. It's been a rollercoaster of a week, but Mrs. Henry is one proud teacher!

Year 3

Rosie –Jackdaws

I could choose Rosie every week for this award but this week she has really impressed all the teachers in Year 3 with her endeavour and compassion. She has really tried her best with tricky assessments and totally blown us away with her achievements at home too. She loves showing her thoughtfulness by putting compliments in our compliments box but you are always kind to your peers. You are a little superstar, Rosie! We love you just the way you are!

Cody – Cranes

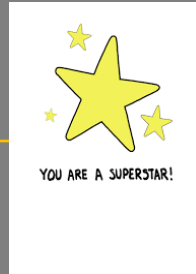

Cody has worked extremely hard with our assessments this week. He has taken his time, thought carefully about every question and persevered when they became more tricky. His endeavour has enabled him to get the results that he deserves. Keep up the hard work, Cody!

Evie – Buzzards

Evie, you have really endeavoured to do your best with your Literacy and Maths work recently. You have persevered with tasks even when they have been tricky. Keep up this super attitude as it inspires others to do the same.

Henry- Hawks

Henry, you have really endeavoured to do your best in all of your assessments this week! Even when you found things tricky you didn't let this stop you. You have also blown me away with your speedy times table knowledge in our very first practice test. You always have a super big smile on your face and it is lovely to see you showing such compassion and respect to other members of the class. Well done!

Year 5

Dominic - Ospreys

At times, what you do not know is not worth knowing Dominic. In most topics, you endeavour to go the extra mile in acquiring new knowledge by researching about the topic both inside and outside school. Your work on volcanoes clearly shows this.

In addition, you shown yourself to be a compassionate person, empathising with people who have suffered name-calling which we were learning about in PSHE.

Keep being the Dominic we all know and love.

Henry - Woodpeckers

I've chosen Henry this week because he always endeavours to do his best in every lesson. He listens carefully, works diligently and always produces work to the best of his ability.

He is also very polite and respectful to all adults and children. Henry you are a pleasure to teach and an asset to our class. Well done!

Year 6

Eva – Falcons

Eva consistently works hard in class in all our subjects. She shows great endeavour and a mature, sensible attitude towards both her work and school life in general.

Challenges are faced and tackled with positivity and resilience. A great term, Eva! Keep it up!

Adam – Eagles

Adam is a fantastic member of Eagles, he is showing an amazing mature attitude. He is showing integrity within the classroom and being a super kind friend to all at breaktimes. Due to his endeavour, Adam is making outstanding progress in many areas of the curriculum. Mrs Irvine, Mrs Issa and I are so proud of the respectful compassionate young man you are developing into. Keep striving to be the best you can be.
