EYFS

Robins – Archer

Archer continuously blows us away with his hard work and love of learning every day. He is enthusiastic and always tries his very best at school and at home. Archer you are a super star and we are so very proud of your positive attitude. Keep up the hard work!

Jays - McCauley

We have been really impressed with McCauley this week. He has had a fantastic attitude to learning and has been trying super hard to join in with group and whole class discussions. McCauley, you have persevered with all your work this week and you are growing in confidence. Well done, we are proud of you.

Year 1

Owls – Libby

Libby doesn't always find things easy but has worked so hard with her reading and writing this term.

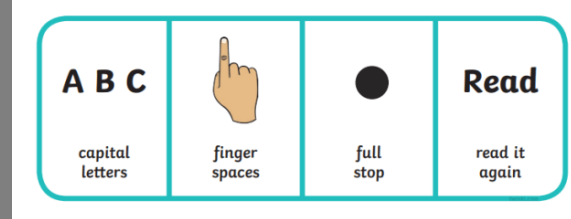

She has made great progress – keep it up Libby!

Sparrows – Harry C

This week in English we have been sharing a lovely book called 'Once Upon a Snowstorm'. We have used our inference skills to work out what was happening in the pictures. Harry has amazed us with his accurate sentences. He has now started to use clear finger spaces – well done Harry!

Keep up this fantastic writing and super attitude!

Year 2

Finches— Jacob

This week you have amazed us with your excellent Space knowledge. In English we have been reading and writing poems about Space. You gave an excellent description of a what a radar dish is.

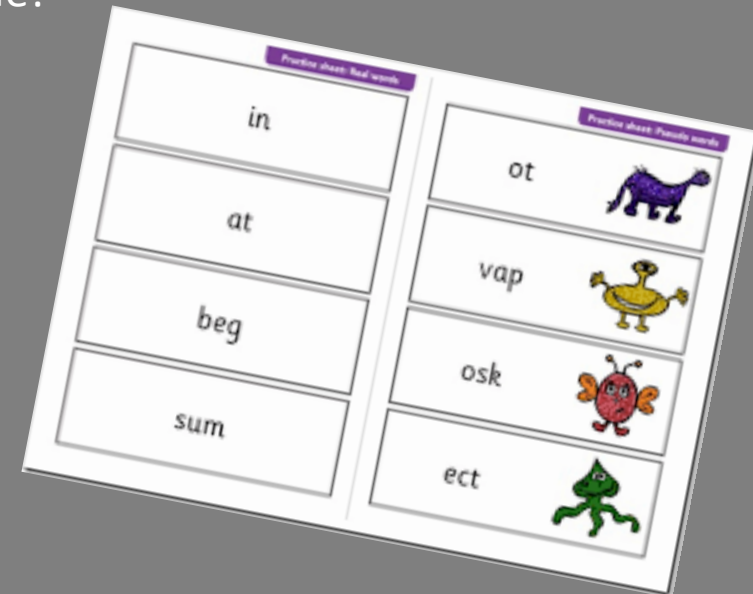

Great knowledge shared this week.

Wrens – Edina

Year 2 have had some special Phonics words to read this week. Edina often likes to do things as quickly as possible! But she has really concentrated and taken her time to read each of the 40 words carefully. She tried very hard to not let those pesky alien words trip her up too! It has been lovely to see her progress.

Keep it up Edina, well done!

Year 3

Isla S-Jackdaws

Wow, Isla has really impressed all of the Jackdaws this week with her super homework. She completed some research on sea turtles and presented it beautifully. You have inspired the rest of the Jackdaws to also do their best too, Isla. Great work.

Charlie – Cranes

Charlie works extremely hard in all lessons. This week, he has challenged himself in Maths lessons, wanting to achieve even more and working to the best of his ability. Keep up the hard work, Charlie!

Year 4

Marley – Buzzards

Marley, this half term you have been endeavouring to improve your times tables knowledge. During maths lessons you have shown enthusiasm, especially for singing them, and you have tried hard to challenge yourself. Keep up the good work and carry on learning them!

Brooke- Hawks

Brooke, you have really been striving for excellence this week! I was blown away by your amazing story writing which was full of creative and unique ideas. I always enjoy reading your work as it so detailed and presented beautifully! I could choose you every week for this award Brooke as you are always trying your very best to improve your writing. Keep up this amazing attitude.

Year 5

Jorge – Ospreys

You have really stood out in school this week Jorge. Whether it has been working in group with Mrs Khan, your performance PE with Ben from Blackburn Rovers or just in your regular lessons in class, you have been striving for excellence!

I was especially impressed with the creativity and effort that went into your persuasive radio advertisement homework task that you handed in on Teams. I think you have found your calling Jorge – an advertising executive of the future!

Cobey – Woodpeckers

Cobey, we've chosen you for this award because you have written a fantastic persuasive speech linked to our book, The Nightmare Before Christmas.'

You used emotive language, flattery, imperative verbs and rhetorical questions to engage and persuade your audience. Well done, a super piece of work!

Year 6

Oliver - Falcons

Oliver has been enthusiastic and engaged throughout our history unit studying the Battle of Britain. This week he has produced a detailed, informative report on his findings and has been able to justify his opinion of the battle and the reasons why Britain won despite being the weaker force. Well done, Oliver!

Marley - Eagles

Marley is working hard to produce work of a high standard. He is 'Striving for Excellence' in many areas of the curriculum. This week, I have been impressed with Marley's attitude and his willingness to want to achieve his very best. He has not settled for second best and has asked what else does he need to do to improve. This has been evident in his History work and in his English writing - keep up the super hard work.

EYFS

Jays - Alannah is a delightful member of our class and shows the school values of compassion and respect. She is a kind friend and a fantastic listener. Alannah is also a super role model who is always ready to learn and is an extremely helpful member of our class too. Well done, Alannah, you should be very proud of yourself.

Robins – Charlie

Charlie is a kind and caring boy and a fantastic helper to everyone in the Robin Class. This week, we have been wowed by Charlie's respectful attitude in class. Particularly, as we have had to dedicate more time practicing our Christmas songs. He has been respectful towards his friends who have been up at the front. Well done Charlie!

Year 1

Owls - Ellis

Ellis was a super third innkeeper during our Nativity play!

When we first gave him the role, he was a little nervous but he amazed us with his loud, confident voice and his singing skills! He certainly challenged himself and faced his fear.

Sparrows - Olivia

Since starting in Year 1, Olivia has always had a warm smile on her face and been keen to learn. She always tries her very best in all that she does.

This week, she has been particularly kind to a friend who sometimes finds things a bit tricky. She has been kind, calm and patient. You have really shown our school value of compassion. Never change Olivia, what a super star you are!

Year 2

Finches– Hunter

All Term you have been a polite and respectful member of Finches class. Hunter you always use your manners, greeting us with a Hello and a lovely smile each morning. You never forget to say Thank you.

You truly show the school values of Respect and Integrity.

Don't ever change Hunter, we are really proud of you.

Wrens – Poppy

Poppy has been a bit unwell recently, but she has come back to school with a sensible and mature attitude. It can sometimes be a bit unsettling when you have been off, but Poppy has slotted back into the routines of our class, as well as putting effort into the work that she has been doing. She has regularly demonstrated our school rules and values this week.

We hope this positive attitude continues! Well done Poppy!

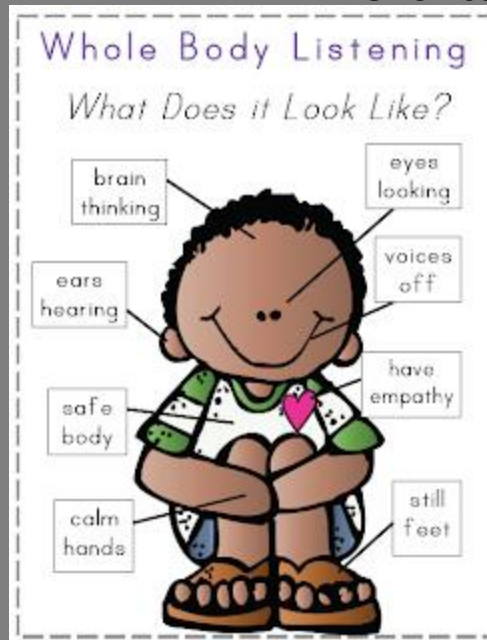

Year 3

Evie-Jackdaws

Evie was off school last week because she was poorly but has come back to school with renewed energy and enthusiasm. She showed true endeavour when catching up on assessments and I am so proud of her. Evie has also been working hard to improve her whole body listening skills which has been great to see. Keep up with this great attitude, Evie.

Giselle - Cranes

Giselle has shown real endeavour this week. She does not always find her work easy but has shown determination and tried to work more independently. Keep this up, Giselle!

Year 4

Layla –Buzzards

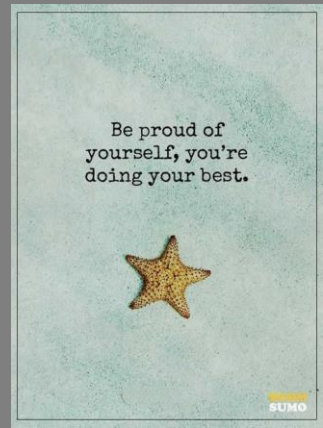

Layla you are such a thoughtful and caring member of our class. You always have a kind word for others, you volunteer to help out and you always use your manners, patiently waiting your turn without fussing. You are a wonderful role-model for our school and a true 'Feniscowles Child.' We are proud to have you in our class.

Phoebe- Hawks

Phoebe you have been a real superstar this week! You are always trying so hard in all areas of the curriculum. This week I noticed you showing true endeavour in our art lesson. You took your time and paid attention to small details.

You always have such a big smile on your face, beautiful manners and you show compassion and respect to everybody in the Hawks class. You are an excellent role-model of how to spread positivity and kindness!

Year 5

Jack – Woodpeckers

Jack has had a super week and endeavoured to do his work in all lessons. He's had a smile on his face when receiving praise for his positive attitude and for making good choices. He even took his work to Mr Andrew and was rewarded with many dojos!

This is lovely to see Jack, you should be very proud of yourself, well done!

Ruby P – Ospreys

What can I say Ruby? You are a well-mannered member of the class who respects all members of our school community. You work hard, showing endeavour each and every day. You have a strong moral compass which you show through you making good choices and positive contributions.

You are a super role-model to other pupils as a worker and, most importantly, as a person!

Well done Ruby.

Year 6

Amirah - Eagles

Amirah is a polite, hard-working member of the Eagles class. She always shows compassion to others and is kind, helpful to everyone. Mrs Irvine and I, are always proud of your super attitude towards your learning.

Maizie - Falcons

Maizie has had such a great term in Year 6. She works hard in class and is always willing to go the extra mile to help others. She shows compassion and endeavour in everything she does. Such a mature and sensible attitude! Well done, Maizie!
