Jays – Ziggy

Ziggy has wowed us this week with his knowledge and understanding of the world. He has been able to talk about famous buildings and landmarks with confidence. When we went to explore our local environment, he drew a detailed house and challenged his learning even further by writing a list of the different materials he could see. Keep up this amazing learning and attitude too, well done Ziggy!

Robins – Isaac

Isaac has been working ever so hard with his writing over the holidays and since his return to school. He has wowed us with his super sounding out of words and writing of sentences. Isaac found it a bit tricky to separate words with finger spaces but has persevered and improved his independent writing Well done Isaac, keep it up!

Year 1

Owls - Heidi

We have had so much fun this week in Year 1, designing, making and assembling a moving picture! Heidi took great care with every stage of the process and her final product is fantastic.

Sparrows – Jacob

Yesterday, we were delighted with the way Jacob concentrated and listened to instructions, because he drew the most fantastic picture of the boy and penguin from the Lost and Found story. Jacob used the scissors carefully and cut out his picture ready to make a moving picture. Super effort Jacob, we are very proud of you!

Year 2

Finches– Eva W

What an amazing week in English!
Eva has had her writing head on, she has used amazing adjectives and exciting vocabulary in her diary writing for Samuel Pepys.

What an amazing opener!

When I woke up, I could not believe my eyes!

Wrens – Luna

Luna has come back to school with lots of enthusiasm and energy. She has been very keen to share her ideas and vocabulary when describing the events from the Great Fire of London. She has also been trying to listen to others carefully and wait her turn to speak.

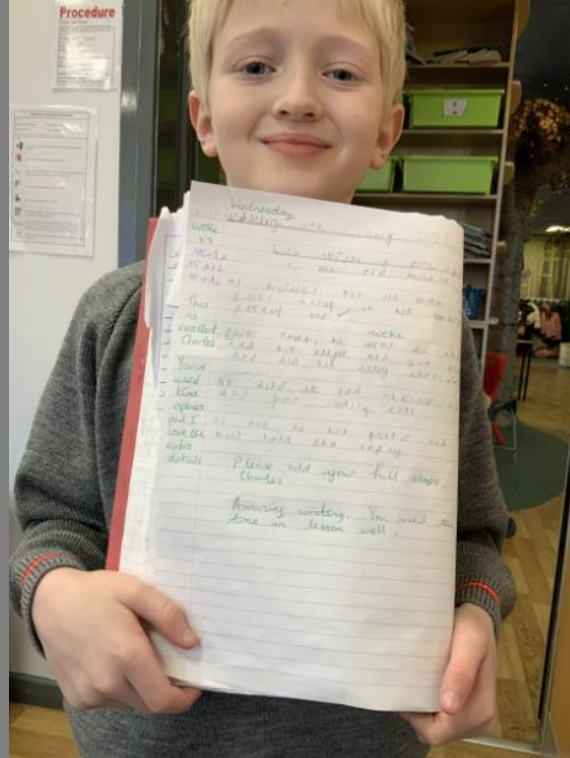

Well done Luna – keep this up!

Year 3

Charles-Jackdaws

This has been the best week for Charles. He has really upped his game with writing and come up with some amazing work. I know he is super proud of himself and his description about the old man's day. He worked as hard as the old man in the story did. What a little superstar!

Daisy – Cranes

Daisy has quick recall of her number bonds and multiplication facts. This knowledge is enabling her to solve a variety of maths problems including some quite tricky divisions. Keep it up, Daisy!

Year 4

Kenzie – Buzzards

In Science this week we have been exploring how to make a bulb light up by creating a circuit. Kenzie was a super scientist and thoroughly enjoyed the practical investigating. He was interested, curious and full of questions and what-ifs?

Of course he was the first one to create the circuit, light the bulb and find other ways of doing it!

Fabulous science Kenzie!

Logan- Hawks

This week I have chosen Logan for his super maths work! His speedy timetables have really helped him with our multiplication and division topic. He is always seeking out the opportunity to be challenged and extend his learning. You are a natural mathematician and your eagerness to learn creates a positive learning environment for our class. I also noticed your amazing science work this week when we began exploring electrical circuits. Keep up the hard work!

Woodpeckers – Noah L

In Year 5, We have been creating our own mythological creature that is going to feature in the myth that we're going to write next week.

Noah was so enthusiastic about this, that he gathered ideas about what his creature was like and was able to write a fantastic character description using lots of different openers, ambitious vocabulary, similes and metaphors.

Well done Noah!

Ospreys – Lucas M

This week in Computing, you showed yourself to be a programming whizz while using Scratch! You were able to code the sprite efficiently and showed strong debugging skills when your programme gave an unintended outcome. You were able to explain your work to other pupils and suggest improvements to their algorithms.

Super work Lucas.

Year 6

Ava - Falcons

In English, we have been reading about Shackleton's expedition to the Antarctic. Ava has written a very powerful, inspirational speech to the men of the ship Endurance. She used the power-of-three and great positive vocabulary to inspire the men to face a perilous situation with bravery and determination. A great speech! Well done!

Jays – Edith

This week we have talked a lot about what it means to show compassion. This kind and caring girl has shown concern about the feelings of others and noticed when one of her friends was feeling a little upset. She went over straight away and made him feel better with a teddy bear and a big hug. We are very proud of you Edith, what a lovely thing to do.

Robins – Bailey

Bailey has been awarded our gold book award for offering a helping hand to everyone in class. He shows concern for his friends when they are hurt and often steps in to offer words of support or guidance if he see's somethings wrong. A very compassionate young buy. He also always looks for ways to cheer others up, making them laugh and giggle with jokes. We are so happy to have you in the Robin Class Bailey!

Year 1

Owls - Bradley

Bradley has had a super end to the week! He has been mature and sensible, worked hard and set a really good example to the rest of the class.

He even had the confidence to explain to Mr Andrew, Mrs Metcalfe and Mrs Taylor what we had been doing in DT, remembering and using important vocabulary.

Sparrows – Iyla

Iyla is a super friend to everyone in Sparrows class. She respects others by showing kindness. Yesterday lots of children were struggling with their drawing work, and Iyla sat with a classmate and explained how to draw and paint a careful picture. This is a great example of compassion.

Iyla, thank you for helping others. We are very proud of you!

Year 2

Finches– Ariana

This week Ariana has had her head screwed on!

What an amazing attitude towards her work.
Showing endeavour in all that she does.

Her hand has been up volunteering answers and ideas, she has been straight to her work, concentrating and achieving lots.

Fantastic Ariana, we are so proud of you.

Wrens – Ella

Ella has had a good start to this half term over the last couple of weeks. She is trying to follow instructions first time, putting more effort into her work and is also working on her independence skills. Ella has a lovely, relaxed attitude towards school life... sometimes too relaxed! But we would not have her any other way!
Keep being you, Ella.

Year 3

Thalia-Jackdaws

What an absolute all-round legend! Thalia could be chosen for any of our school values; she shows great integrity and compassion at all times and always pushes herself to be the best version of herself. She also showed great endeavour during our oracy lesson with Mr Simpson this week, and received the Pineapple of Bravery.

Carry on being you, Thalia!

Alyssa – Cranes

Alyssa is such a sensible, hard-working member of Cranes class and a great role model to others. She returned to school this week and due to her great listening skills and endeavour she quickly caught up on the work that she had missed and then continued to work hard in order to achieve even more. Well done, Alyssa!

Year 4

Alfie C – Buzzards

Alfie you have shown lots of endeavour and perseverance this week with our multiplication and division work. You have had to try and master some tricky skills and haven't given up. These are good values to have. Attitude to work is everything. Well done Alfie!

Riley- Hawks

Riley came back to school this week with a real can-do attitude! He worked super hard on our new division topic yesterday and showed some excellent teamwork skills! You are always ready to learn, show whole body listening and do everything you can to succeed at whatever task is given to you. Your kindness and respect for other members of the class also doesn't go unnoticed! Keep up this super work Riley, you are really striving for excellence!

Year 5

Woodpeckers – Jacob R

Jacob is a very respectful member of our class. He is polite, well-mannered and helpful.

He also always endeavours to do his best. I've seen this in class this week, when working on short division in maths, and the work became more challenging.

At playtime, I noticed he showed compassion in offering to play with someone who was upset.

Jacob is a true Feniscowles child because he shows endeavour, respect and compassion, 3 of our values that are so important.

Fantastic Jacob!

Ospreys – Lucas A

You have shown a good level of resilience in his Maths work this week Lucas. At first, the division work was proving a huge challenge but you overcame your difficulties with a combination of inspiration and perspiration!

In addition, it was lovely to see how you collaborated with your table in Science yesterday whilst completing the Forces practical.

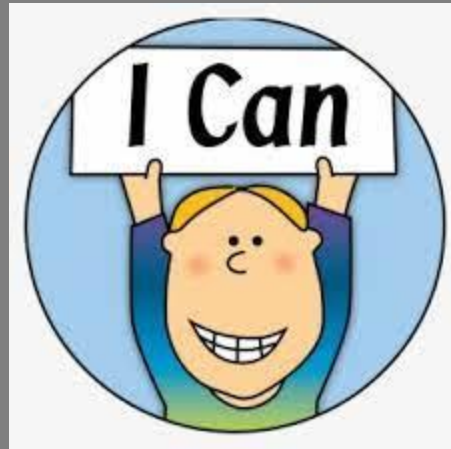

Well done Lucas – you have shown yourself to be a super Feniscowles child this week.

Year 6

Sam - Falcons

Time and time again, no matter what the situation, Sam shows the school values of endeavour and respect. He strives for excellence in everything he does and is making great progress as a result. Keep up the hard work, Sam!

Striving for Excellence

Noah - Eagles

Noah has had an amazing week. He has been really focussed on 'Striving for Excellence' in all aspects of school life. This week, he has produced some lovely pieces of work and has listened carefully. Keep up this mature, sensible and hard-working attitude.
