Welcome to this weeks' newsletter.
The last one for 2025!

We would like to wish all our families a lovely holiday period and thank you sincerely for your continued support.

We hope you enjoy a restful and happy break, and we look forward to seeing you all back when school returns in January.

Sunrise Smiles and a Christmas Countdown

Miss Hurtley paused to celebrate the glorious early morning sky!

The beauty of the moment felt even sweeter knowing it is not long until school breaks up for the Christmas holidays.

Spirits were high and the countdown had officially begun. Even the sky seemed to be celebrating!

Fun, Food and Festive Games!

We celebrated the end of the term with a super fun, festive breakfast.

Everyone enjoyed yummy food, lots of giggles, and playing fun, christmassy games together.

It was a lovely morning and a brilliant way to finish the term with big smiles all around.

Christmas Clear-Out?

If anyone is having a Christmas declutter and comes across any old toys, we would be very grateful for any donations. We especially welcome small world toys, figures or dolls that the children can enjoy.

A Big Thank You!

Thank you to all our children and especially our wonderful staff for another fantastic term.

Your enthusiasm, energy and teamwork are wonderful — even with many tired bodies, spirits have stayed high!
